Fourth Sunday of Advent

Hymns

- 263 Hark! A herald voice is calling 70 Be thou my vision
67 Be still for the presence of the Lord
508 O little town of Bethlehem

Now unto Him who is able to keep,
able to keep you from falling.
And present you faultless before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy.
To the only wise God our saviour
be glory and majesty,
dominion and power,
both now and forever
Amen.

Notices

Welcome to St Paul's church!

Today is the Fourth Sunday of Advent, which brings us to the quiet threshold of Christmas. The waiting is almost over, yet the Church invites us to pause rather than rush ahead. In today's Gospel, Joseph listens to God in the middle of uncertainty and chooses faithfulness without knowing how the story will end. On the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we are reminded that God often works not through massive, exciting things, but through trust, obedience, and our ordinary lives offered in love. As we prepare to celebrate Christ's birth, we are invited to make space for God's work among us and to take our own next faithful step.

After the service, please stay for refreshments which will be served in the hall.

Thank you!

A big thank you to all those who decorated our Christmas tree and church after the service last week!
